The Tribe invites qualified contractors to submit proposals based on the scope of work and conditions contained in this RFP. The purpose of this request for proposals (RFP) is to obtain a contractor(s) to develop culturally relevant, place-based curriculum units for Kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grade about the Coquille Indian Tribe. The units must be unique to Coquille Tribe experiences, including tribal history, sovereignty, culture, treaty rights, government, socioeconomic experiences, and current events.

About
The Coquille Indian Tribe is comprised of bands that historically spoke Athabaskan, Miluk, and later, Chinuk Wawa. Since time immemorial, they flourished among the forests, rivers, meadows, and beaches of a homeland encompassing well over 750,000 acres. In the mid 1850's the United States negotiated treaties with the Coquille people. The U. S. Senate never ratified these treaties. The Coquille tribal homeland was subsequently taken without their consent.

The Coquille were included in the now repudiated Western Oregon Indian Termination Act of 1954. On June 28, 1989, they were restored and tribal sovereignty was federally recognized. The Coquille Restoration Act authorized the Secretary of the Interior to take land in to trust for the Tribe. The Tribe's land base is now approximately 10,200 acres, of which 9,800 acres are proudly managed using sustainable forestry practices. The Tribe's service area includes Coos, Curry, Douglas, Jackson, and Lane Counties in Oregon. The Tribe provides government services in and pursues economic development projects in these counties. They are members of the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians (ATNI) and the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI).

The Coquille Tribal Council consists of seven members, whom are elected by the General Council. The General Council consists of all enrolled members over the age of 18. Tribal Council members serve alternating three-year terms. Tribal Council meets twice a month, and as special meetings are called.

The Tribal government employs about 110 people both at the government headquarters in North Bend and at its reservation property in Coos Bay, Oregon. In addition to administering the Tribal government, the Tribe provides services to its members, including health and human services, education, member enrollment, natural and cultural resource management, Tribal court, public works and facilities maintenance, Tribal police, gaming commission, and management of a self-insured group health plan. Through its economic development corporations, the Coquille Economic Development Corporation (CEDCO) and the Mith-ih-kwuh Economic Development Corporation (MEDC), the Tribe operates several business enterprises, including the Mill Casino-Hotel.
