PUBLIC SAFETY BULLETIN

The Public Safety Department Welcomes KC Chisley

After 14 years living in Sand Point, Idaho, KC Chisley has come home. He spent 10 years working as a Machine Technician, and started working as a Public Safety Officer in March of this year. Before he left Idaho he was trying to transition into becoming a police officer so KC said “This is a step in the right direction”.

KC married Brooklyn in 2020 and they live at Kilkich with their two children Cooper, 3 and Madison, 18 months. He’s been attending language classes, taking the kids to drumming and he’s looking forward to being more involved in cultural activities.

In his spare time he enjoys playing music – he plays the ukulele, guitar and harmonica. He also spends time with his brother Elijah Chisley, working on cars. KC said he loves his job because he gets to be surrounded by nice people and involve himself more in the community. Be sure to stop and say hi to him when you see him out here on the reservation.
